

Augusta Girls Softball Financial Assistance Request

It is the goal of Augusta Girls Softball that no child be denied the opportunity to play Little League softball because of financial hardship. In support of this goal, AGSI has established a Scholarship Program for families in need of financial assistance with part or all of league registration fees. Please complete the following application and return it to AGSI at address listed below. If applicable, please send us any documentation concerning free lunch or reduced priced school lunch, to help aid in the financial assistance request. After we have received the request form and other documentation, we will provide you a code; the code will be a one-time use code and only be allowed to be used once. The code will be used for online registration and enrollment. Note that all information on this form will be treated confidentially and will only be used by AGSI league officials for budgeting and financial planning purposes.

I REQUEST:

PARTIAL FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE. 70% off registration fee.

Or

FULL FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE for AGSI registration fees for my child or children.
